Buy Montana Wood Content and Downloadable Materials

The Buy Montana Wood campaign was developed by the Montana DNRC with support from the United States Forest Service to increase the use of Montana wood products.

All downloadable resources found on this website are free and available for use in promotional and educational activities. Please cite the website www.buymontanawood.com when using materials for events, distributing materials and quoting content from the website.

All Montana wood producers and vendors of Montana wood products are encouraged to use the logo and any of the downloadable logo variants in tandem with their own independent branding to help consumers readily identify products as grown and milled in Montana.
